

Congressional District 2

1,410 adults participated in a prevention program and completed a survey.
48,304 parents and professionals served through a direct service, an outreach event, or impacted through social media.

Parent Education & Home Visiting | 12 Programs

After program completion, 741 participants selected from a list of 12 possible benefits received from the program. Results indicate:

- 96% had better stress management skills.
- 96% had better anger management skills.
- 97% were better able to recognize when at risk of using harsh, ineffective parenting.
- 96% had more knowledge about what child sexual abuse is.
- 98% had more knowledge about what child physical abuse is.
- 98% had more knowledge about what child emotional abuse is.
- 98% were more committed to getting their child appropriate medical care when needed.
- 99% had better parenting skills.
- 99% used more positive parenting skills that teach and guide their children in a loving way rather than harshly.
- 97% knew more about how to get help in their community.
- 94% used community resources more consistently.
- 96% sought support from friends, family, or others more often.

Respite Care | 1 Program

After program completion, 38 participants selected from a list of 10 possible benefits received from the program. Results indicate:

- 100% had better stress management skills.
- 95% were better able to control important things in their life.
- 100% were better able to cope effectively.
- 97% were better able to recognize when at risk of using harsh, ineffective parenting.
- 100% were better able to overcome difficulties.
- 100% were better able to view their child in a positive light.
- 95% knew more about resources in their community.
- 90% used community resources more consistently.
- 92% sought support from friends, family, or others more often.
- 97% took more time for personal self-care needs.

Fatherhood | 6 Programs

After program completion, 631 participants selected from a list of 29 possible benefits received from the program. The benefits were grouped into 9 categories. Results indicate:

- 86% had improvement in workforce development.
- 79% had financial improvement.
- 94% had greater access to community resources.
- 87% had improved basic needs.
- 96% had better adult relationships.
- 92% had improved parenting skills.
- 87% had improved child functioning.
- 97% had better coping skills.
- 86% had improved cooperation with court system.

Congressional District 2

1,199 youth participated in a prevention program and completed a survey. | 10 Programs

63,062 youth served through a direct service, an outreach event, or impacted through social media.

3rd - 5th Grade Youth Programs

After program completion, 394 participants selected from a list of 8 possible benefits received from the program. Results indicate:

88% got along with people better.

94% knew more about good touch and bad touch.

87% were better able to recognize own feelings.

67% were better able to control own feelings.

86% thought more before making decisions.

87% made better choices and kept out of trouble.

92% were better able to name someone they trust for help.

75% were better able to tell people what they need.

6th - 12th Grade Youth Programs

After program completion, 805 participants selected from a list of 13 possible benefits received from the program. Results indicate:

91% believed they would be okay when bad things happen.

94% were better at solving problems in a positive way.

92% were better able to recognize positive qualities in others.

94% were better at developing friendships.

94% were better at recognizing positive qualities in self.

93% thought more before making decisions.

96% made better choices and kept out of trouble.

96% were more committed to not using drugs, alcohol, and tobacco/vape.

97% were better able to recognize abuse and neglect.

96% were better able to name someone they trust for help.

91% were more committed to telling adults about abuse or neglect.

91% were better at admitting mistakes.

98% were more committed to doing their best in school.

